

HB 1688 -- REQUIREMENTS FOR PUBLIC OFFICIAL ELECTRONIC MAIL

SPONSOR: Chipman

This bill requires public officials to make use of electronic mail provided by the state for specified official purposes and when handling confidential information or intelligence materials. The bill allows communication for discretionary activities, personal matters, and political matters not involving official acts to be confidential information and does not require any expansion of public record requirements under Chapter 610, commonly known as the Sunshine Law.